

(Functional and non-functional Requirements):

-List of Requirements for Doctor Appointment Management System:

Requirement ID	Requirement	Description	Type
R1	User Registration	The system shall allow users to create an account with personal details.	Functional
R2	Login and Authentication	Users must be able to log in securely using their credentials.	Functional
R3	Appointment Scheduling	Users can schedule, reschedule, or cancel appointments with doctors.	Functional
R4	Patient Profile Management	Patients can view and update their personal and medical information.	Functional
R5	Doctor Availability Management	Doctors can set and update their availability for appointments.	Functional
R6	Search Functionality	Users can search for doctors based on specialty, location, and availability.	Functional
R7	Appointment Management	Doctors and admin can view, modify, or cancel appointments.	Functional
R8	Data Security	User data must be stored securely and comply with relevant regulations.	Non-functional (Security)
R9	Performance Scalability	The system should handle a growing number of users without performance degradation.	Non-functional (Performance)
R10	User Interface Design	The system shall provide a user-friendly interface for all functionalities.	Non-functional (Usability)

R11	Multi-language Support	The system shall support multiple languages for diverse user base.	Non-functional (Supportability)
R12	User Profile Editing	Users can update their personal information and preferences.	Functional